General Comment

I don't understand why you people would want to eliminate the opportunity to do options in and IRA or Retirement Account. The rules right now limit our ability to any type of option other than covered calls. You can't "buy puts or "buy covered call" you can only sell a covered call. I have used this many times to generate some limited income on an ongoing basis. Your program at the FED limits what I can make on interest bearing opportunities so I need some avenue to make some income. Please don't eliminate this option for investors.

Thanks
